

Michael Gfroerer has been teaching piano at University Settlement Music & Arts School for over 20 years. Michael also performs and is a respected composer. He was a founding member and Co-Artistic Director of CONTACT contemporary music, which allowed him the opportunity to work with many of Canada's most-respected composers and performers. In 2007, he was awarded the Orfeo Musica Award for International Cooperation by the ILGCN / Tupilak, based in Stockholm, Sweden. Michael enjoys teaching in a creative and enjoyable atmosphere, and embraces working with students of various ages in a variety of musical styles.
